Oh, the Joy Of Happy, Singing Children

In the Household!

Is there anything in this wide world that can stir your feelings to greater pleasure and contentment than to hear your children begin the day with a song?

MUSIC

-means so much to the child, especially in its earlier years; and every opportunity should be given it to study and acquire a certain proficiency in playing.

To You Parents

-we say that the cultivation of good music in the home is a distinct aid to character building, to appreciation of all that is beautiful in Nature, to a better patriotism and a more clearly defined sense of duty.

Some start must be made toward the settlement of pending difficulties, and when enough action has been taken by the Mexican government to warrant a belief that the points which the United States wishes cleared up will be eventually settled, then recognition will be gladly extended.

would themselves straighten out their affairs and that the chaos of revolution was not likely to be removed in a decade, as witness the slew processes by which Russia is strugging for self-possession.

There is no doubt that the present occupant of the White House would like to round out his term with the Mexican problem on the road to settlement. Men who are planning new business enterprises and development are waiting moreover for the act of recognition. Nevertheless, the Department of State is firm in its determination that something better than promises must be forthcoming this time before recognition is extended. If the Mexicans are misled into thinking they can get easier terms with the next administration in Washington, especially when it probably will take a long time before the Harding administration will be ready to tackle Mexican mattere on account of the press of other questions, than the disposition here is to let the Mexicans who advise such a course bear the consequences. Illiteracy to Be Wiped Out if Bate of Progress Continues.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 22. The number of illiterates in Alasama between the ages of ten and wenty-one years at the close of the period elapsing between taking the school census of 1918 and 1920 totals 61,153, according to the report of the statistician of the state department of statistician of the state department of education.

This report indicates an increase in the literacy of whites and negroes between these ages of 5.2 per cent, and it says if the present rate of progress is maintained over the next four years illiteracy will have been practically wiped out in the state.

Jefferson, Mobile and Montgomery counties lead in the ratio of literates to illiterates, the former's census showing 98 per cent literate, while Mobile, with 97.7, and Montgomery, with 90.2 per cent, followed. Greene trailed the sixty-seven counties, with a percentage of 64.8 literates out of 3,896 persons enumerated between the ages of ten and twenty-one years.

Bailiff Garrett, followed by two reporters, who scented a story, rushed out. A diminutive old woman was found to be the source of the noise. In a loud, shrill voice she was protesting to a policeman.

"I'll just tell you what I think of you for locking up my boy!" she cried. Whatever she thought was not ascertained, for she was quietly but firmly escorted down the steps and outside of the court, and the courtroom regained its solemn, judicial appearance.

ARRESTED BY JANITOR.

A young man giving his name as Leo Dirr, his age as twenty-nine years and his address as Alexandria. Va., was arrested in an apartment house at 21st nd N streets last night by Robert Howard, the janitor, and turned over to police of the third precinct.

On the way to the police station he made an unsuccessful effort to get rid of a small wrench and screwdriver, tools he had used in his work as a machinist. Several checks and 4 cents were found on him, the police say, as were several sheets of paper of the American Legion. Agents of the secret service division of the Treasury Department are participating in an investigation of the prisoner's statements,

PRICE REDUCTIONS REACH WAR ON SOCIAL DISEASES. EVERY PART OF WORLD | Health Officer to Ask Congress for

Price reduction has extended to every part of the world, according to a statement today by the National City Bank of New York, which declares that two-thirds of the principal articles now being imported into the United States were sold in the country of production at a less price than the same class of articles sold thirty, sixty or ninety days earlier.
